CIVIL CASE NO. 22-00026

ORDER

Before the court is Plaintiff Iosua Masen’s Motion to Dismiss Certain Defendants and to Amend Scheduling and Planning Order.¹ See ECF No. 20. Plaintiff asks the court to dismiss his action against Defendants Consolidated Transportation Services, Inc. dba CTSI Logistics Guam, Tyrone Elliott Oates, and Century Insurance Company (Guam) Limited (collectively, the “Settling Defendants”) with prejudice pursuant to a settlement agreement per Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(2) and to allow Plaintiff to continue his action against non-settling Defendant Chubb Insurance Hong Kong Limited (“Chubb Insurance”) pursuant to 22 GCA §

¹ The issue of amending the scheduling and planning order will be handled separately by the Magistrate Judge.

1 18305. See id. at 1. Settling Defendants moved to join Plaintiff's Motion to Dismiss. See ECF
2 No. 22. Chubb Insurance filed a response. See ECF No. 24. Therein, Chubb Insurance is not
3 objecting to the dismissal of the Settling Defendants. Rather, it is asking the court that it also be 4 dismissed.

5 The court hereby GRANTS Plaintiff's motion to dismiss the Settling Defendants. The 6 dismissal shall be with prejudice. As to Chubb Insurance's argument that it should also be
7 dismissed from this case, Chubb Insurance shall file the appropriate motion to dismiss.

8 SO ORDERED.
